

Tracking Osprey Migrations Worldwide

Below are some of the many osprey tracking projects you can visit online in North America and Europe to watch the progress of the spring and fall migrations of GPS tagged ospreys.

NORTH AMERICA

Chesapeake Bay Foundation

<http://www.cbf.org/ospreymap>

Friends of the Osprey & Bird Studies Canada

<http://friendsoftheosprey.org/telemetry-project/>

Jamaica Bay Wildlife Refuge, New York

<http://www.jamaicabayosprey.org>

OspreyTrax, Rob Bierregaard

<http://www.ospreytrax.com>

Osprey Watch of Southeast Michigan

<http://michiganosprey.org>

Project OspreyTrack, Squam Lakes Nature Center, New Hampshire

http://www.nhnature.org/programs/project\_ospreytrack/osprey\_maps.php

Project OspreyTrak. Center for Conservation Biology & Virginia Aquarium, Virginia

<http://www.ccbirds.org/what-we-do/research/species-of-concern/species-of-concern-projects/ospreytrak-project/>

EUROPE

Dyfi Osprey Project, Wales

<http://dyfiospreyproject.com>

Royal Society for the Protection of Birds, Loch Garten Ospreys, Scotland

<https://www.rspb.org.uk/discoverandenjoynature/discoverandlearn/tracking/lochgartenospreys/googleearth.aspx>

Sääksisäätiö and the Finnish Museum of Natural History, Finland

<https://www.luomus.fi/en/finnish-satellite-ospreys>

Scottish Wildlife Trust, Loch of the Lowes, Scotland

<http://scottishwildlifetrust.org.uk/things-to-do/osprey/>

The Wildlife Trusts. Rutland Ospreys, England

<http://www.ospreys.org.uk/category/satellite-tracking/>

